Ware. Hertfordshire

Providing quality residential care since 1985, Hillview is situated in the centre of the charming Hertfordshire town of Ware. Conveniently located for both the motorway and railway station, the home also offers easy access to Ware's wide range of shops. Hillview prides itself in providing the very highest standards in personalised care to all of its residents.

At Hillview, we want our residents to feel fully at home. We offer a choice of single and single en-suite bedrooms, and actively encourage residents to make the space their own – personalised with their own belongings.

Hillview's resident chef prepares a varied menu of delicious home cooked meals which are nutritionally balanced and tailored to meet specific dietary requirements as well as individual preferences. Residents may choose to take their meals in Hillview's delightful dining room, or in the privacy of their own room.

Morning coffee and afternoon tea are also provided, with additional snacks available throughout the day.

Hillview encourages its residents to lead full and active lifestyles. Our dedicated Activities Organiser ensures there's always a varied social calendar, with events including day trips, parties and visiting entertainers.
