The perfect place to be... comfortable surroundings, with the latest and carefully selected fixtures and fittings to enable you to live your life, your way.

Blyton House is named after childrens' literary favourite Enid Blyton, author of the Noddy series, Famous Five and The Wishing Chair, who lived in Bourne End from 1929 until 1938. The home where she created Brer Rabbit is regularly visited today, in fact Old Thatch became the title for a whole series of books.
