Manager's notes: Maple Tree House Apartments have been designed to offer luxurious accommodation specifically for the elderly in a select development of only four apartments. These spacious apartments are marketed at couples or persons who require the reassurance, security and backup of a residential care home, without having to enter a communal living setting. This unique concept offers the resident and their relatives confidence and peace of mind, whilst still retaining the same benefits and independence of residing in their own home.

Care provider: Rayners (Extra Care Home Ltd).
