Manager's description: The Bill House is set in a commanding position amid the tranquil surroundings of Selsey Bill, eight miles South of Chichester in an area of outstanding natural beauty. The interior is an unforgettable mix of detail and contrast creating a blend of space, elegance and charm. Residents are encouraged and assisted with activities to help them keep their independence and promote their self esteem. These range from daily living skills to social activities such as personal hygiene and dress sense. Often activities are aimed at relaxation, stimulation and motivation to enhance the quality of life. Constant monitoring of each resident's needs is directed by the Matron through the team of skilled carers. They assess all residents on a monthly basis to evaluate progress and any changes that may be required.
