Manager's description: The home is a unique building - 'listed', and attached to the estate and gardens of Arundel castle. The age and style of the Priory results in an environment that has some split floor levels and some structural idiosyncrasies. These are largely and most effectively overcome by positive staff practices and a high skill level. The ethos of our service is to enable maximum independence and self-esteem by recognising and encouraging individuals' strengths, and through tactful, discrete support to needs. Individuality is promoted in all aspects of daily life - activities, communication, autonomy etc, with a focus on one-to-one support, rather than group.
