Manager's description: Bankhouse is situated in the heart of the conservation village of Lesmahagow, just two miles down the road from the Auchlochan Estate.

Its central yet quiet location, set back from the village main road, allows residents to reach the local shops, churches and library with ease. Two parks are within a short distance of the Home, allowing the opportunity for pleasant walks beside the River Nethan.

Bankhouse is predominantly a custom-built Home with a warm, caring atmosphere where residents and their friends and family can socialise and feel truly "at home".

Light and spacious accommodation comprises studios and rooms with en suite bathroom facilities, all designed with safety and ease of access in mind. You can choose from a range of communal lounges and informal seating areas and, if you wish, make use of the assisted bathroom in which our staff will support you to enjoy a relaxing bath.

Your key worker will spend time with you to develop your individual care plan and inform other members of staff about how you wish to spend your time. This way we can ensure that we address all your personal needs.
