The home is easily accessible for public transport to East Kilbride town centre, Hamilton and Strathaven. The property was originally owned by John Hastie a local poet, and has since been refurbished to accommodate 55 residents in single en-suite accommodation. With some rooms having en-suite shower rooms in enhances the care provided and promotes dignity and independence for our elderly residents. The home has its own sensory garden, which was developed by the staff, relatives and residents and with financial help from Rolls Royce.
