Manager's description: McWhirters House offers residential care for older people in private rooms with en-suite facilities (six rooms have private showers). The home is single storey. It has three separate living areas offering care to frail, older people. The home also offers a short break service. There is one main dining area offering a choice of mealtimes with public sitting areas scattered throughout the home. The home has an external garden area around the building with seating. The furniture, soft furnishings and décor are all provided and maintained to a high standard in each room.
Access to this service is decided through a care assessment and to arrange this contact your local Social Work office.
