Manager's notes: Our cottages are situated in beautifully maintained gardens set between Redford Road and Thorburn Road in Colinton, Edinburgh. The retirement complex consists of 41 cottages offering single and double accommodation with all cottages having their own front door.

Colinton Cottages are within walking distance of Colinton village which has several shops and Post Office facilities, there is also a good bus service close by to access the city. The retirement complex has it's own meeting hall which Tenants can access independently and where weekly activities take place which are organised by the Tenants Social Committee for those interested. If Tenants wish to have a friend or family member stay over there is a Guest Room with twin beds, T.V., fridge, microwave and kettle and en suite shower room available at a reasonable cost.

The cottages are owned and managed by The Aged Christian Friend Society of Scotland. The objectives of the society are of charitable nature beneficial to the community in relieving the needs of Older People who are 65 years or over through the provision of retirement accommodation. The society is a registered charity with the office of the Scottish Charities Regulator (OSCR).
