Manager's notes:
- The site, which is located on Parade Court in Bourne End, Buckinghamshire, will provide high quality accommodation for the over 60s and is the only new retirement development in the town. These retirement apartments will be in an ideal location, situated a short distance from a local supermarket, with other nearby amenities such as a local dental practice and doctors surgery as well as coffee shops and banks acting as key attractions.

- Construction is currently underway with apartments available to purchase off-plan towards the end of 2015. We hope to welcome our first homeowners in the early part of 2016.
