Manager’s notes: A new extra care housing scheme for older people in the East End of Hendon has been named ‘Keelboat Lodge’, celebrating the history of the local area.

The name Keelboat Lodge was chosen in honour of local hero Jack Crawford, who was trained as a keelsman at a young age before serving in the Royal Navy on HMS Venerable. The name also maintains a close link with both the maritime and industrial history of the area.

The extra care housing programme in Sunderland is fast-growing, with Keelboat Lodge, valued at nearly £9m, becoming the sixth Housing & Care 21 scheme to be developed in the city. The development received a £1.19m grant from the Homes and Communities Agency.

Care provider: Housing & Care 21.
