Manager's notes:	Braunton is officially the largest village in England and well known for its well preserved great field. Situated close to the centre of this busy village, Mariners Close consists of 30 ground and first floor bed-sits and flats. The site is shared between sheltered housing and a purpose built day centre run by Devon County Council. There is restricted parking on site with a large public car park very close by.
Info updated:	14/06/2006.
