Manager's notes: Markwick Close can be found close to the centre of this historic town that sits right on the Welsh/English border some 21 miles from Hereford. Being only a few minutes walk from the main shopping area you have all the advantages of town living. Most banks, shops and post office are found in the main street close to the imposing clock tower commemorating Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee in 1887. The River Arrow recreation area is just a short distance from Markwick Close and during the summer months there is much to see and enjoy in this area.

Public transport (bus only) is within easy walking distance and provides services to Leominster, Hereford and Llandrindod Wells. A doctors' surgery and Kington Cottage Hospital are approximately half a mile away. Most religious denominations can be found in and around the Kington area and is supplemented by weekly communion in the scheme's community/day room.
