Manager’s notes: Sheltered housing is accommodation with support services for older people. As a sheltered housing resident, you have your own self-contained flat (or bungalow) and you can use the scheme’s communal facilities – which will typically include a lounge, kitchen, toilets, laundry, games and hobbies room, hairdressing service and shared gardens. To help you to carry on living independently, you have the reassurance of being linked to the Lifeline 24-hour alarm system.
