Manager's notes: Portland House is a popular retirement scheme situated in a quiet cul-de-sac location in the village of Marple. It is located just off the main Stockport Road, near to the Memorial Park and is a 10-minute walk from the centre of Marple where all the local amenities such as the Co-op supermarket and Doctor's surgery are situated. The scheme operates a regular ring and ride bus service to the shops and the main bus routes are also just a 5-minute walk away.

A variety of social activities are offered to the residents of Portland House including dancing, bingo, coffee evenings, bowling and card games, it also boasts its own library. For those that enjoy the great outdoors, there are a number of walks in the area.

Portland House is an ExtraCare Scheme.
