Manager's notes:

Abbeyfield House, Coatbridge opened in July 1994, and was purpose built for the Society. It is set in a quiet residential area, with bus stops located nearby.

Abbeyfield House provides accommodation for 10 residents who enjoy their own en-suite bed sitting room. There is also a dining room where residents come together for the two main meals of the day and a large lounge with TV and video. The grounds are landscaped and there is private parking for residents' cars if required.

Info updated: 13/10/2008.
