Foot Care for Older People

The service provides a toe nail cutting service for people who have healthy feet and healthy toe nails.

Our local service supported by NHS trained staff.

This service is only available to those who are unable to manage their own personal foot care.

Treatment will be provided by an Age Concern volunteer who has been trained by an NHS podiatrist.

The volunteer is not a podiatrist and is not qualified to assess feet or foot problems.

Category(ies): Care, Foot care

Who it is for: This service is available to people over 60.
