Adult Social Care
Our Adult Social Care Service aims to promote people's wellbeing and independence by supporting them to:

- Live independently and safely
- Have as much choice and control over their lives as possible.
- Live in their own home, if they wish, or other accommodation of their choice.
- Find out about services and support available and how to get access to them.
- Get the support that they need in local and ordinary settings.
- Be safe from abuse.
